TAFT MUSTERED IN TO ASSOCIATED SOCIETY OF G. A. R.
Washington, May 15.—President Taft, in the presence of a distinguished gathering of civil war veterans was mustered in today as a member of the Associated Society of Farnsworth post Grand Army of the Republic, of Mount Vernon, N. Y. The ceremonies were conducted by General Horace Porter of New York in the east room of the White House. President Roosevelt was made a member of the society soon after he became president. In addition to membership of Farnsworth post, there were present today representatives of John A. Dix post and of Lloyd Aspinwall post of New York City, as well as prominent members of the G. A. R. in Washington. A few years ago when Grand Army ranks began to thin from death, a movement was started to organize associate societies of such persons as desired to help to keep up the famous organization. Many of the larger posts now have associate societies.

President Taft became an honorary member.

SOCIETY

MISS STEWART DELIGHTS.

Friday evening, the stage of Sacred Heart academy, tastefully decorated in apple blossoms, carnations, palms and ferns, presented a beautiful appearance and proved an artistic background for the little performers who pleased the most critical listener and delighted her many friends. Attired in a dainty gown of pink, she made her bow to an appreciative audience and rendered the following program: Tarantelle. Thalberg. Roman Op. 28, No. 2. Aufschwung Op. 12, No. 2. Schumann. Caprice. Chopin. Glompt. Song, "When Celia Sings." F. Moir. Romance, Op. 51, No. 5. Tschalkowsky. La Morena. Chopin. Chaminade. Rhapsody. C. Major. Dohnanyi. Miss Stewart's touch is indeed magnetic, and her execution of the brilliant numbers was exceptionally good. The opening selection, by Thalberg, was faithfully interpreted, and in marked contrast to its rapid tempo was the romance by Schumann, which breathed melody in every note. True to its title, the number by Glompt was a wayward recital of varying emotions.

Miss Stewart's voice has many admirers and she displayed its flexible quality in her solo, "When Celia Sings," which was accompanied by Miss Malone, whose recital was the first of two weeks ago. In response to a rapturous encore, she gave Roma's "The Letter." The Tschalkowsky sky-rocket showed great technical ability, as did the brilliant rhapsody in C major by Dohnanyi, but the popular Chaminade number had, perhaps more to captivate, in its style, than any other selection. And Miss Stewart deserves credit for the graceful, easy interpretation.

At the conclusion of the program, Father Cushman thanked the young lady in his own name, and in that of her many friends, complimenting her on the excellent work. Incidentally, he congratulated Miss Malone and expressed the regret he felt at not being able to be present when she acquitted herself so admirably.

MR. WHEELWRIGHT SURPRISED.

Mr. Alex Wheelwright of Pittsburg, Pa., was pleasantly surprised Friday evening at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Cather, 236 E. Main avenue. The evening was pleasantly spent in cards and music, high five being the game. Prizes were won by Miss Mabel Keiser, Mr. J. Hearn, Miss Mabel Wheelwright, and Mr. Alex Wheelwright. Supper was served in the dining room, which was decorated with carnations.

Those present were Mrs. Mamie Lewis, of Pittsburg, Mr. and Mrs. Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hearn, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wheelwright, Miss Mae Butler, Miss Ethel Drysdale, Miss Hilda Drysdale, Miss Lottie Waldman, Miss Nina Waldman, Miss Lena Goff, Miss Ida Goff, Miss Mabel Keiser, Miss Mabel Keiser, Miss Hazel Wheelwright; Messrs. A. Martin, F. Warner, Donelson, C. Herrick, H. R. Graham, C. Roff, J. W. Owen, E. Owen, M. Wheelwright, J. Hurst.

HOME CULTURE CLUB.

The regular meeting of the Home Culture club was held on Thursday, May 6th, at the home of Mrs. Burt. A very pleasant, as well as profitable, afternoon was spent with our southern authors.

Miss Dressel gave several interesting extracts from the works of G. H. Cable, and Mrs. Burt presented J. L. Allen and his own peculiar style. Mrs. Kief very ably reviewed the works of Thomas Nelson Page. Mrs. Kief, herself a native of the south, gave a very interesting interpretation of the scenes at the close of the war as described by this well-known author.

Mrs. Putnam gave a very instructive review of the life of Francis Hopkinson Smith, which was followed by incidents from the life of Winston Churchill and a review of his "Mr. Crew's Career" by Mrs. Markle.

The next meeting of the club will be held May 20th with Mrs. Fitzgerald, 2733 Grant Ave.

ROSEVEAR-TREMELLING.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Matthew Mark, 2250 Adams avenue, Thursday evening, the contracting parties being R. Albert Rosevear and Miss Louise Tremelling. Some years ago the groom left his native England to get a start in the land of hopes—America. He has done well and a few days ago, the bride arrived to share his success. A brother of the bride was best man and Miss Emily Graham was bridesmaid. Rev. G. W. McCreery of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony.

A bountiful wedding supper at the home of Mrs. Ann Mark followed. As nearly all the guests were reared within a radius of seven miles, the occasion was one filled with memories of old Cornwell.

The happy couple will be located in Ogden.

TOLSTOI CIRCLE.

The Tolstoi Circle met at the home of Mrs. Newcomb Tuesday afternoon. From Reader Mrs. King read, "Faith," by Ella Wheeler Wilcox; "Lecture on 'Free Love,'" by Josiah Allen's wife, was read by Mrs. Newcomb. Mr. Dooley on the education of the young, was given by Mrs. Cook. Mrs. Miller led the Timely Topics, conditions in Turkey, after which a general discussion followed. During the social hour dainty refreshments were served by the hostess in the spacious dining room.

The circle adjourned to meet in two weeks with Mrs. Kate Kuhn, 2357 Adams Ave.

CHARACTER PARTY.

Thursday night, a number of friends of Miss Ruth McElhern surprised her at her home on Twenty-fifth street. The home was beautifully decorated throughout with purple illacs. The young people were in costume, the guests impersonating the Eypsy, Spanish girl, flower girl, Japanese girls, old ladies, cowboys, rough riders, Spanish cavalier, Indian and the fun-loving clown.

Those who participated in the affair were Misses Gladys Ballantyne, Bertha Furche, Marion Brownine, Leah Pardoe, Josephine Larkin, Carrio Furche, Zina Taylor, Merce Barlow, Messrs.
